FINISH DISCLAIMER

Client Name:

Project Name:

Product Name:

Product Code:

Based on your viewing of the samples that were provided to you, you have approved the following finish color:

Approved Sample: _____

All wood used in the manufacture of DNY tables and seating is of the highest quality. Like all natural materials, wood has inherent disparities in color and grain pattern because of variations caused by nature, over which the company has no control. DNY cannot warranty color, grain, or texture of wood. Custom finishes and techniques may not be covered under warranty.

By acknowledging this FINISH DISCLAIMER you understand that there will be variations in color, character, tone, and graining within the product and between products. Furthermore, the actual finish may vary from the sample that has been provided. Variations between samples and finished products should be anticipated.

Please indicate that you accept these terms and return promptly. A signed disclaimer must be received prior to finishing. Delay in return of disclaimer will result in extension of lead time.

Client Authorization: I have read and understand the finish disclaimer and would like to proceed. I have selected a finish color that has been matched to my satisfaction.
